

Vector Management Public Health Workshop

ULV Machine Calibrations • 3 hours credit – B N D/Ground, Commercial, and Aerial Applicators

We ask that you bring ULV machines in operating order with fresh fuel, charged batteries, fresh adulticide product and its labeling. Poorly running and broken machines will be bypassed until all the operating machines are attended to.

This FREE workshop is by RSVP ONLY. All are welcome

Register online at <https://goo.gl/forms/GiVJFJ2TrtOHVQ112>

Or contact: James Overman at 888-603-1008, e-mail james@allprovector.com

Please respond by April 20th at 5:00 PM

Mosquito Control Workshops to be held:

| | | |
|---------------|---------------------|--|
| Rocky Mount: | May 1st | Rocky Mount Environmental Services, 1221 Thorpe Rd. |
| Kinston: | May 2nd | Kinston Environmental Services, 2360 Highway 258 South |
| Jacksonville: | May 3 rd | Jacksonville Public Works, 350 A South Marine Blvd. |

Coffee and registration will begin at 8:30 AM

Topics:

Pesticide safety: The label is the law

Mosquito borne viruses: Provided by Dr. Richards, ECU

Mosquito surveillance: why you need to make the investment

The importance of calibrating your ULV machine

The value of larviciding, Highlighting Burgaw a little towns IPM strategies

Free Doughnuts/coffee & Pizza lunch • ULV Calibrations to begin at 1:00 PM

Speakers:

NC Department of AG. And Consumer Services inspector

Carlos Gonzalez, AllPro sales and support Electrical Engineer

Joe Andrews, AllPro sales and mosquito consultations

Hosted by: AllPro Vector Group

Joe Andrews, Vector Biologist:

• Former Public Health Specialist for NC Public Health Pest Management • Past President of the NCMVCA • Recipient NCMVCA Hamilton Stevens Award • Long Standing NCMVCA board member • Current Legislative Chair NCMVCA • Former President Mid-Atlantic Mosquito Control Assn • NC Director for Mid-Atlantic Mosquito Control Assn

Carlos Gonzalez: Electrical Engineer, Kohler Certified Technician, CEO MCES LLC

